

Japanese Language & Culture Course (ONLINE) [January to June, 2021]

The JF KOZA is a Japanese language course by the Japan Foundation, New Delhi (JFND). In JF KOZA, we use very distinctive form of teaching material "MARUGOTO" which conforms to the Japanese language education method called "JF Standard" developed by The Japan Foundation.

1. Feature of JF KOZA:

- (1) Main purpose of our course is to brush up the teacher's teaching ability and not only for the students.
- (2) Our course put more emphasis on brushing up verbal communication than grammatical knowledge.
- (3) The students are encouraged to acquire Japanese proficiency through notice and discover activities based on the oral materials. Therefore, teachers do not teach the meaning of every single word.
- (4) This course DOES NOT conduct JLPT Preparation classes.

2. Eligibility:

- (1) Applicants must be 18 years of age or above by 1st December, 2020.
- (2) Those who are able to communicate in English.
- (3) Those who have enrolled to the Minato Website of Japanese Language.
