

The Japan Foundation New Delhi Support for Participants from India For the RIIPA Ambassador Lecture Series (RAMBLS) on Japan-India Relations

Application Instructions

1. Program Description

The Japan Foundation New Delhi (JFND) supports the emerging Indian scholars for the online event, “RIIPA Ambassador Lecture Series (RAMBLS) on Japan-India Relations” on March 20th (Sat), 12:00-14:00 (IST). The theme of the lecture is “The Future of India-Japan Relations in 2021 and Beyond: Trade, Security and Diplomacy”. Ambassador of India in Japan, H.E. Mr. Sanjay Kumar Verma is the chief guest of the lecture moderated by Prof. Tosh Minohara from Kobe University. JFND hopes to support scholars’ to create a stronger exchange of ideas between India and Japan.

* RIIPA stands for Research Institute for Indo-Pacific Affairs, the organization established in 2019 in order to deepen the Indo-Pacific region's understanding.

2. Eligibility

Applicants shall fulfil all the followings:

- (1) Scholars in Japanese studies or IR and Area Studies working on Japan related;
- (2) Scholars who participate in the conference from India remotely.

3. Application Procedure

Please submit the “Application Form” by e-mail to the contacts below. The deadline is March 17th, 2021.

4. Finance Support to be Provided

- Lecture registration fee (In-kind)

*JFND will pay the awardees’ registration fee to RIIPA directly.

5. Terms and Conditions

- (1) If awardees decided not to attend the lecture after they submit the “acceptance form”, the Japan Foundation New Delhi may ask you for a refund of costs that JFND bore for the awardees.
- (2) Awardees must submit a final report by April 16th.
- (3) This financial assistance covers the registration fee only.

Contact:

Aoi Ishimaru

Director, Japanese Studies & Intellectual Exchange (JFND)

aoi.ishimaru@jfindia.org.in

Anushree Dutta

Program Coordinator, Japanese Studies & Intellectual Exchange (JFND)

anushree.dutta@jfindia.org.in