

The Japan Foundation New Delhi Support for presenters and panelists from India to the AAS Annual Conference
Honolulu, Hawai'i & Online 2022
Application Instructions

1. Program Description

The Japan Foundation New Delhi (JFND) supports the emerging Indian scholars to have a presentation at the AAS Annual Conference, March 24-27, Honolulu, Hawai'i & Online. By doing so, JFND hopes to support scholars' academic career development as well as to create a stronger network cultivated among scholars in India and Japan.

2. Eligibility

Applicants shall fulfill all the followings:

- (1) Scholars who present and participate in the conference in Honolulu, Hawai'i & Online.
- (2) Scholars whose panel is accepted and well prepared for the presentation.

3. Application Procedure

Please submit the "Application Form" and other documents specified on the form by e-mail to the contacts below. The deadline is December 15, 2021.

4. Finance support to be Provided

- (1) Conference registration fee. *JFND will reimburse to the applicants who have paid.

5. Selection Policy

Higher priority is given to;

- (1) Emerging scholars who are teaching about Japan at the higher educational institutions;
- (2) Scholars who will make a presentation in a panel at the AAS annual conference for the first time.

6. Terms and Conditions

- (1) Awardees are required to attend at least 3 online sessions via live-stream sessions related to Japan, and shall report on those panels in their final report.
- (2) If awardees decided not to attend the conference after they submit the "acceptance form", the Japan Foundation may ask you for a refund of costs that JFND bore for the awardees;
- (3) Awardees must submit a final report by 30 April 2022.
- (4) This financial assistance covers the registration fee only.

Contact:

Yuka Hayakawa

Director, Japanese Studies & Intellectual Exchange (JFND)

yuka.hayakawa@jfindia.org.in

Anushree Dutta

Program Coordinator, Japanese Studies & Intellectual Exchange (JFND)

anushree.dutta@jfindia.org.in