- (2) Application documents should be submitted to the Japan Foundation New Delhi Center (E-mail address: Sonu_Gupta@jpf.go.jp, Ashish_Sharma@jpf.go.jp, Ishmeet_Kaur@jpf.go.jp) no later than June 15th 2024.

Points to be noted:

- Applications will not be accepted via post or fax
- Applicants must promptly notify the Japan Foundation if any of the information given on the application changes.
- Submitted application documents will not be returned. Please be sure to retain a copy for yourself.

8. Notification of Results

- (1) The results of screening and selection will be notified to each applicant organization or group after July 20th 2024.
- (2) If a project is accepted, the specific amount of grant funding will be calculated taking various factors into account, including the regulations of the Japan Foundation, price levels in the relevant country, and balancing with grants to other accepted projects. This calculation process may result in the final grant amount being significantly less than the amount applied for.

9. Obligations of the Grantee

- (1) Programs of the Japan Foundation are operated in accordance with the relevant Japanese laws and regulations of the Japan Foundation including the "Law for the Proper Execution of a Budget Relating to Subsidies" (Law No. 179 of 1955).
Projects should be implemented in accordance with how they are described in the application form. In the event that any changes (with the exception of minor changes) to the basic information relating to the applicant or to the content of the project are made after application, these should be notified to and approved by the Japan Foundation.
- (2) The grantee shall acknowledge the Japan Foundation's financial support when the Grantee publicizes the project.
- (3) ICT equipment, teaching materials, and other items acquired through the grant must be appropriately managed and used in line with the project purposes, and be utilized efficiently according to the purpose of the grant even after the grant program ends.
- (4) During the implementation of the grant project if the Japan Foundation considers it to be necessary it may request the submission of a report from the grantee concerning the status of implementation of the grant project and the use and management of equipment and teaching materials purchased with the grant. If it is recognized that the grantee is not implementing the project in accordance with the details that were the basis for deciding to provide funding, or other attached conditions, the provision of the grant may be halted.
- (5) The Grantee must submit a report upon completion of the project, detailing an overview of the project, its outcomes and matters pertaining to income and expenditure. For ICT Environment Improvement Grant projects, please attach photos showing the use of the purchased ICT equipment to the report.
- (6) The Grantee shall prepare account books and documented evidence pertaining to all revenues and

- expenditures relating to the Grant Project and preserve them for five years from the next year of the year the Grant Project has been carried out.
- (7) The Japan Foundation does not tolerate any fraudulent activity of applicants during the application process and throughout the grant period. Once a grant has been provided, committing any form of fraud with regard to the Japan Foundation grant funds could result in penalty measures, such as revocation of decision to provide a grant in whole or in part, required return of the rescinded portions of the grant including additional charges, late payment charges, suspension of the grant for a certain period of time, and/or other legal actions.
 - (8) Eligible recipients of the ICT Environment Improvement Grant must comply with the following:
 - The grantee must designate the person in charge of managing the ICT equipment, prepare an equipment management book, attach to the equipment the JF logo sticker sent by the Japan Foundation after notification of the grant decision, and carry out the necessary maintenance to ensure the equipment is always in good condition.
 - ICT equipment must be used, in principle, at the institution receiving the grant. (Lending it to an instructor affiliated with the institution is allowed.)
 - When lending the equipment to an instructor affiliated with the institution, the lending period and management methods must be clearly specified.
 - The grantee must agree to the Japan Foundation conducting on-site inspections of the use and management of ICT equipment.
 - After purchase of the ICT equipment, a photograph of the equipment with a JF logo sticker attached must be sent to the Japan Foundation New Delhi Center by email within one month.
 - ICT equipment must not be transferred, sold, or rented to individuals or other organizations.
 - (9) Grantees should comply with any other conditions that were appended at the time of the decision to provide a grant.
 - (10) Only one institution can apply from a group of an organization.

10. Disclosure of Information

- (1) Details of projects supported by the Japan Foundation (e.g., the name of the applicant, project descriptions) will be made public in the Kokusai Koryu Kikin Jigyo Jisseki (Detailed Annual Reports of the Japan Foundation), the Annual Report, or on the Japan Foundation's website, or via other public-relations materials.
- (2) Upon receiving a request for information disclosure based on the "Law Concerning the Disclosure of Information Held by Independent Administrative Institutions, etc." (Law No. 140 of 2001), the Japan Foundation will disclose materials such as submitted application forms (unless stipulated by laws as not to be disclosed).

11. Handling of Personal Information

- (1) Compliance with applicable laws

To the extent applicable, the Japan Foundation will comply with the "Act on the Protection of Personal Information" (Act No. 57 of 2003) (the "Act"), relevant cabinet and ministerial orders, various guidelines stipulated by the Personal Information Protection Commission or other organizations to which the Personal Information Protection Commission has delegated authority, the "EU General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR")," the Personal Information Protection Law of the People's Republic of China and related laws and regulations (the "Chinese Laws"), and other laws and regulations in relation to protection of personal information in relevant countries and regions, etc., and when handling any personal information, the Japan Foundation will properly collect, use and control the same. (3) Purposes of use and period of personal information

- a. Based on the consent of the applicant, the Japan Foundation will use the Personal Information acquired from the applicant for screening, notification of screening results, implementation of the project, post-evaluation, communication to successful applicants and for any and all other purposes for management of applicants and successful applicants (the “Purposes of Use”).
- b. For the proper and smooth operation of the Japan Foundation projects, any information such as the applicants' names, genders, jobs, titles, affiliations, project periods, project content, etc. will be: posted on published materials, such as the Detailed Annual Reports of the Japan Foundation (Kokusai Koryu Kikin Jigyō Jisseki), the Annual Report and the Japan Foundation's website; used for preparation of statistics materials; and used for formulation of future Japan Foundation projects.
- c. In addition to the information specified in b. above, the applicants' contact information (i.e., address, e-mail address and phone number) will be used to: request the applicants to answer questionnaires as follow-up to the project after completion thereof; provide a notice regarding other Japan Foundation projects; request the applicants to provide information for formulation of future Japan Foundation projects, and so on.
- d. The Japan Foundation will handle the Personal Information of the applicants for the period necessary to achieve the Purposes of Use stated above.

(4) Provision of personal information

- a. The Japan Foundation may provide the Personal Information acquired from the applicants to the following organizations, to the minimum extent necessary. The Japan Foundation will make sure that the recipients take measures to ensure the security of the Personal Information.
 - (a) The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan, Embassies or Consulates-General of Japan, etc. (for handling of security control and support for project implementation)
 - (b) Evaluators such as outside experts, etc. (for screening, post-evaluation, etc.)
 - (c) News media and other organizations (for public relations for Japan Foundation projects)
 - (d) Other organizations and individuals who receive the information as needed for the projects
- b. The Personal Information acquired from the applicants may be used or provided for purposes other than those specified in the Purposes of Use, in accordance with Article 69, Paragraph 2 of the Act, such as providing such Personal Information for administrative organs, other incorporated administrative agencies, local public entities or local incorporated administrative agencies (the “Administrative Organs”) as long as the Administrative Organs use the same within the scope necessary to conduct the affairs or services prescribed by applicable laws and regulations and where there is a reasonable ground for such use.

(5) Cross-border transfer of personal information

- a. The Japan Foundation may handle the Personal Information acquired from the applicants by transferring the same to the base located in Japan (including the Japan Foundation headquarters) or other countries or regions for the Purposes of Use specified above. The Japan Foundation shall appropriately control the Personal Information in such countries or regions.
- b. In addition to the case specified in the preceding paragraph, the Japan Foundation may provide the Personal Information acquired from the applicants to necessary organizations or individuals in Japan or other countries or regions for the Purposes of Use specified above as needed for the projects, only when the conditions stipulated in laws and regulations are satisfied.

(6) Security control of personal information

The Japan Foundation shall endeavor to prevent unauthorized access and leakage of the Personal Information of the applicants by way of taking appropriate security control measures and control means.

(7) Rights pertaining to personal information of applicant

The applicant has the right to access his/her Personal Information, correct inaccurate Personal Information, suspend the use of the Personal Information, etc., to the extent that the Act, the GDPR, the Chinese Laws and other laws pertaining to protection of the Personal Information in the relevant country or region apply.

(8) Filing of objections against handling of personal information

In the case where the applicant is dissatisfied with the handling of the Personal Information in the Japan Foundation, such applicant may state his/her objections to the Japan Foundation to the extent permitted by the applicable laws and regulations. In accordance with the applicable laws and regulations, the applicant may also file objections to the authority that has jurisdiction over protection of the Personal Information in the country to which the applicant belongs.

(9) Personal information of persons involved in the project

The Personal Information of persons involved in the project other than the applicant, which is submitted by the applicant to the Japan Foundation, shall also be handled in the same manner as stipulated in (1) to (8) above, and therefore, the applicants should provide explanations in advance to the persons involved in the project and obtain their consent.

(10) Contact information

Please use the contact details specified in "14 Inquiries" for any opinions, questions, etc. regarding any matters specified in this "Handling of Personal Information" section.

(11) Revocation of consent

The applicant has the right to revoke his/her consent to any matters specified in this "Handling of Personal Information" section at any time. The revocation of consent does not affect the legality of the handling of the Personal Information prior to the revocation. In addition, when the applicant does not provide his/her consent or revokes his/her consent, such applicant may not be able to receive necessary information and/or services from the Japan Foundation.

12. Ensuring the Safety and Security of Projects Overseas
