

Observing a Class

for teachers

JF koza is now open for any teachers in India

- Japanese teachers/those who are aspiring the Japanese teachers can observe the Japanese online courses offered at the Japan Foundation New Delhi.

- Class observation is by appointment only, so please be sure to make an appointment through the form.
- Applications must be made at least one week before each class date. After that time it will not be accepted.
- Participants will be asked to fill out feedback and survey after the class

※Note that this is not for learners

For more information and registration,

Scan here or visit
JFND website

SCAN ME